- Weekly Summary (This should be about a paragraph in length.)

       This week we had our weekly meeting where we talked about the status of everyone and various tasks we need to accomplish.  We also set up another meeting to troubleshoot the local environment.  After the meeting, we were able to get 2 local environments fully set up with some of the members being partially set up.

- Past week accomplishments (This should be about a paragraph or two.)

       This past week we were able to set up the existing frontend/backend environment for both the admin panel and the website.  We ran into two main issues that we were able to solve.  The first issue dealt with us not being able to log into the admin panel on localhost.  After troubleshooting, we realized that our .env file was incomplete, and we had to add a string for the JWT.  The second issue dealt with loading up the website.  After troubleshooting, we realized that some of the import statements were not coming in correctly.  This was due to the .gitignore including /public, which housed some of the import statement.  After adding the public folder back in, we were able to access the website locally.

- Pending issues (If applicable)

  Some members are having trouble still setting up their environment, which will be fixed by this week.

- Plans for the upcoming week

  The first thing we will accomplish this upcoming week we will be planning on unblocking any issues with local environments.  We will then start working on the website to make it look more aesthetically pleasing.  We will also work on the news report assignment as well.

- Summary of weekly advisor meeting (If applicable/optional)
